

To whom it may concern; The legal sponsor/sponsors, sureties, benefactors or underwriters as seen on the legal tender of identity birth certificate issued to me: God given Christian name [John] assigned the legal state fictitious, feigned surname [Doe] at time of birth without my consent [see attached] represent the legal person, corporation and trust of the OFFICE OF THE GENERAL GENERAL for [STATE, PROVINCE] who give security, make promise and officially take responsibility for the legal name registered on the birth certificate security of the person instrument. This security issued to me as relief for all duties debts and obligations both private and public sector is accepted by me in peace and good faith for the act of legal state public trespass on my private property God given Christian name [John] assigned and imposed the fictitious state debtor name [Doe]. This security of the person instrument is served upon you to discharge all duties debts and obligations for the legal person named on the birth certificate counter security displaying the legal surety, sponsor, signatories and seal of office which stand in place and stead for the legal person name as seen on your correspondence. Failure to accept this security of the person legal tender of identity certificate served upon you and your legal person corporation will be deemed fraud. Govern yourself accordingly with the legal token of value security of the legal person now in your possession.